STOP Patient Rights

1. To be treated with dignity and respect.
2. To be free from: Abuse, Neglect, Exploitation, and Restraint or seclusion, of any form, used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience, or retaliation.
3. To provide a safe, sanitary, and humane living environment that provides privacy and promotes dignity.
4. To receive treatment services free of discrimination based on the patient's race, religion, ethnic origin, age, disabling or a medical condition, and ability to pay for the services.
5. To privacy in treatment, including the right not to be fingerprinted, photographed, or recorded without consent, except for: Photographing for identification and administrative purposes, as provided R03-602, or video recordings used for security purposes that are maintained only on a temporary basis.
6. To receive assistance from a family member, designated representative, or other individual in understanding, protecting, or exercising the patient's rights.
7. To confidential, uncensored, private communication that includes letters, telephone calls, and personal visits with: an attorney, personal physician, clergy, Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services Staff, or other individuals unless restriction of such communication is clinically indicated and is documented in the patient record.
8. To practice individual religious beliefs including the opportunity for religious worship and fellowship as outlined in program policy.
9. To be free from coercion in engaging in or refraining from individual religious or spiritual activity, practice, or belief.
10. To receive an individualized treatment plan that includes the following: patient participation in the development of the plan and periodic review and revision of the patient's written treatment plan.
11. To refuse treatment or withdraw consent to treatment unless such treatment is ordered by a court or is necessary to save the patient's life or physical health.
12. To receive a referral to another program if the licensee is unable to provide a treatment service that the patient requests or that is indicated in the patient's assessment or treatment plan.
13. To have the patient's information and records kept confidential and released according to R03-602.
14. To be treated in the least restrictive environment consistent with the patient's clinical condition and legal status.
15. To consent in writing, refuse to consent, or withdraw written consent to participate in research, experimentation, or a clinical trial that is not a professionally recognized treatment without affecting the services available to the patient.
16. To exercise the licensee's grievance procedures.
17. To receive a response to a grievance in a timely and impartial manner.
18. To be free from retaliation for submitting a grievance to a licensee, the Department of Social and Rehabilitation Services, or another entity.
19. To receive one's own information regarding: medical and psychiatric conditions, prescribed medications including the risks, benefits, and side effects, whether medication compliance is a condition of treatment, and discharge plans for medications.
20. To obtain a copy of the patient's clinical record at the patient's own expense.
21. To be informed at the time of admission and before receiving treatment services, except for a treatment service provided to a patient experiencing a crisis situation, of the: fees the patient is required to pay and refund policies and procedures.
22. To receive treatment recommendations and referrals, if applicable, when the patient is to be discharged or transferred.
